Re: 64G BOLO

September 10, 2011

On Saturday, September 10, 2011 at approximately 1027 hours, Harahan Police Officers (HPD) received a call that an armed robbery was in progress at the Shell Station located at 1700 Hickory Ave. Harahan, LA. Upon arrival, HPD officers located several witnesses that observed a tall black male with a semi-automatic handgun flee on foot to an awaiting black male driving a white Nissan Titan 4 door pick-up truck. Both subjects fled in the suspect vehicle on Citrus Ave towards Jefferson Hwy.

A subsequent investigation revealed the unknown black male is approx 6'3-6'5, 150 -170lbs, dark skin with tattoos on both forearms. Please review below picture of suspect.
